

The UI Global Health Studies Program is now accepting applications for our summer 2022 virtual internship program with the Swami Vivekananda Youth Movement (SVYM) in Mysuru, India.

Dates for the 6-week virtual internship + 1 week of zoom presentations are May 30 – July 15, 2022 (subject to slight change)

The deadline to apply for this year's Global Health Studies SVYM virtual internship is 4:30 pm on Friday, October 29, 2021.

Global Health Studies students complete internships with organizations affiliated with the Swami Vivekananda Youth Movement, a grassroots non-profit which advocates for improved health, education and socio-economic empowerment. Past interns have worked on projects such as a review of vaccination coverage in rural communities, an evaluation of the efficacy of mobile health units, and a streamlining of palliative care services. The summer 2021 interns will be presenting on their projects at the Fall 2021 South Asian Studies Seminar on October 13, 2021, 5:30 – 6:30 pm (zoom info is on event poster). Please plan to attend to hear about this amazing opportunity from other Global Health Studies students!!!

The SVYM Global Health internship is funded by the Global Health Studies Program and the South Asian Studies Ananthamurthy Fund. In summer 2022, the SVYM program costs will be paid for each intern; each intern will also receive a $1000 stipend. GHS faculty can also help interested students secure additional funding such as the Stanley Award, Cmiel, ICRU, PHIL. All declared Global Health Studies B.A., B.S. and certificate students are eligible to apply (though preference will be given to juniors and seniors).

Dr. Carly Nichols serves as the GHSP internship faculty mentor. In spring 2022 interns enroll with her in GHS:3600 Development in a Global Context (2 sh --for which they attend all mandatory arranged meetings), and enroll in an approved South Asian Studies course for 3 sh. Contact the Global Health Studies academic advisor to see how these requirements can fit into your GHS graduation plan. Read more about the internship prep process and blogs from the su21 interns here.

To apply email a word document which provides the information requested below to globalhealthstudies@uiowa.edu before 4:30 pm on Friday, October 29, 2021.
