Global Health Studies Pathways through the Major

The degree in Global Health Studies requires a minimum of 120 s.h., with 37 s.h. (B.A.) or 47 s.h. (B.S.) in the Global Health Studies major at the University of Iowa. A total of three courses may be counted from other majors, minors, or certificates toward the GHS major, excluding courses taken to satisfy GE CLAS Core requirements.

Health (and Medical) Health Science (Natural Multiple Pathways Humanities and Social Science) through the Major: Introductory Course GHS:2000 Introduction to Global Health Studies World Language and 2 World Language courses beyond GE CLAS Core requirement OR Cultural Requirement 6 s.h. of cultural studies courses Required Foundation GHS:4003 Case Studies in Global Health Inequities GHS:3034 Doing Harm by Doing Good OR GHS:3035 Engaging in Global Health Courses GHS:3010 Identifying/Developing Global Health Project Inquiry Course GHS:2100 Foundations of Health Humanities Global Perspectives GHS:1200 Disabilities and Inclusion in Writing and Film GHS:3060 Studies in Complementary and Alternative Medicine and Practices Electives GHS:3070 Hungry Planet: Global Geographies of Food GHS:3036 Ethics, Politics, and Global Health (Shown as examples only. GHS:3120 Global Maternal and Child Health GHS:3105 Contraception across Time and Cultures GHS:3325 Global Epidemics There are many other options GHS:3720 Contemporary Issues in Global Health GHS:3560 Global Garbage and Global Health listed in the catalog.) GHS:4205 Culture, Language, and Health ...and more! ...and more! GHS:3012 Community-Based Global Health Research Experiential Learning GHS:3230 Health Experience of Immigrants, Migrants, and Refugees Course GHS:3520 Latinx Oral Histories of Health Care GHS:4002 Working in Global Health Approved Study Abroad course ...and more!

Global Health Studies